President's Perspective

“Fall Focus”

As the Holiday season fast approaches and your personal time seems to slip away, don't let the commitment you made to yourself for improving your communication skills be put on hold. Getting better takes practice and each week at the meeting is your opportunity to practice and get better. Bring your lunch to the meeting and stay connected! No one wants to delay being a better speaker, getting a promotion or raise. Plan to attend and participate in all the roles.

-Shann Galuza
